Mr. Allen Dulles,

I have always admired your dear brother who sacrificed himself for his country with much heroism.

Now you also are working for the good of your country, and, if I could, I would like with all my heart to help you.

[redacted]
[redacted] Now I have a passport and a visa to go to [redacted] therefore, tell me if I can be of use in learning anything which might interest you. I will do anything, as my life means nothing if I can be of use to the great American people.
